

Friends of Wadi Foquin invites you to

An Interfaith Muslim Solidarity Dinner

INAUGURATION DAY!

FRIDAY,
JANUARY 20

7:00 pm

Doors open at 6:15 pm

LAKE MERRITT
UMC

1255 First Ave
OAKLAND

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Hisham Ahmed

St. Mary's College Professor of Political Science

Dr. Ahmed will speak on Islamophobia's deep roots in US policies toward Palestine and Israel, as well as the need for robust interfaith vitality and solidarity in the current US political climate.

Cosponsored by American Muslim Voice (AMV), Jewish Voice for Peace Bay Area (JVP), NorCal FOSNA, Asian Americans for Peace & Justice and United Methodist churches in the Alameda-Oakland and Berkeley Circuits.

Suggested Donation $50

Tickets available at sponsoring churches and online through Jan. 16 at interfaithmuslimsolidarity.brownpapertickets.com

Proceeds to support Palestinian human rights advocacy in the US, women's health empowerment in Wadi Foquin and pilgrimage scholarships to Palestine-Israel.

Contact: info@friendsofwadifoquin.com

Catering by D'yar Mediterranean Cuisine, Berkeley