

Threading Peace

The Embroidered Costumes of Palestine

Betsy Rich-Gilon presents a collection of Palestinian dresses dating back to c. 1900 and shares the stories threaded into them by the women who made them.

2-4pm Sunday, April 15, 2018

Alameda Free Library, 1550 Oak St, Alameda

(If you have any, bring your own Middle Eastern dresses and stories to share.)

Cosponsored by Friends of Wadi Foquin and the Arab Cultural & Community Center, San Francisco

The Alameda Free Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of the meetings or meeting room users.